

Piyush Kumar Mandal

Greetings! I am Piyush Kumar Mandal, a motivated and aspiring Web Developer enthusiast. Currently I'm a B.Tech(CSE) First Year Student at RIT ROORKEE, I am dedicated to honing my skills and contributing meaningfully to the world of Web Development. My journey in Web Development began with a genuine curiosity and a commitment to continuous learning. I am particularly passionate about learning and exploring the world of HTML, CSS, JavaScript, where I am actively building a foundation of knowledge and practical experience. Through coursework, personal projects, and Virtual Internship From "CodSoft", I have developed a solid understanding of HTML, CSS, JavaScript. I thrive in collaborative environments, enjoy solving challenging problems, and am always seeking opportunities to expand my skill set. As I embark on this exciting professional journey, I am eager to contribute my enthusiasm and dedication to upcoming projects and also my academics journey. Let's connect, collaborate, and make a positive impact together!
